

BACK WHERE WE COME FROM

Masonic Male and Female Institute 1904

Gleason's first public school opened August 27, 1906 in the Masonic Male and Female Institute, which was a 2-story building erected in 1904 to replace a burned private school building. By 1910, enrollment reached 150. All pupils were classified in grades, and the school became a full-fledged high school in 1912-1913. In 1920 the school opened with eight months for elementary school and nine months for high school. Courses available at this time were English, French, home economics, Latin, mathematics, science, and social studies. By 1929 enrollment reached approximately 350. The building erected in 1904 could house the school no longer. A new building, was ready for commencement in May 1929.

The great old bell, which rung from the belfry of the 1904 building, came to rest on a brick pedestal in front of the new school. During the school's growth and progress in the 1930's and 1940's, the 1904 Masonic Male and Female Institute building was razed and in its place a new gymnasium and elementary school was built. By 1949 the school was able to occupy the new building. At this time enrollment had increased to approximately 425. Many improvements were made in the 1950's and 1960's, such as, a modern cafeteria, school bus service, intercommunications system, three new classrooms, and an addition to the gym. As of 1968 the school's enrollment was approximately 550.

The night of February 6, 2004 marked a milestone at Gleason School. The Dudley Sanders Memorial Gymnasium was the setting for honoring past and present athletes and coaches at Gleason School. The gym was opened in 1949 with the class of '49 holding graduation in the uncompleted gym. The 1949-50 squads included: Joyce Stewart, Joyce Watts, Bobbye Robison, Mary Suddath, Kenneth Campbell, James "Birdog" Reed, Junior Watts, and Thomas Morris. Former girls' and boys' coaches who also were in attendance were Mr. Wendell Reed and Mr. Wiley Wheeler. Athletic director, Mr. Mitchell Parham, continued recognizing players and coaches throughout the decades beginning with the 1950's. The decade of the 60's ended with a bang in 1969 as both the girls' and boys' teams won county and district championships and advanced to the state tournaments. In the 70's decade, the 1971 girls' team, under head coach Mr. Clarence Barham, played in the first ever substate game and the 1978 girls' team was district champs. In the 80's decade, there were three district championships: 1983, 1988, and 1989. The 90's was the decade of dominance for girls' basketball. Under head coach Mr. Randy Frazier, there were 8 district championships, 2 regional championships, 1 state runner-up, and 2 state championships. Kara Sanders ('96 team) and Ashley McElhiney ('99 team) were selected Tennessee Class A Miss Basketball. The 2000, 2001, and 2003 teams won district championships. Players and coaches in attendance on this night received a piece of gym floor that commemorated 55 years of basketball tradition at Gleason School.

The girls' golf team returned this season with a positive outlook from last year. The girls were once again undefeated throughout the season though this was not a one woman team. They did the best of their ability to win every game. The girls knew the importance of being able to concentrate and focus while playing. Because of this knowledge, the team was frequently able to win great matches. In the midst of all their hard work, they still had a good time. This year they once again headed for the state tournaments, this time in Pickwick, Tn. The girls enjoyed their stay and finished 5th in the state. In individual statistics, Maegan Sullivan finished 14th. The boys' golf team had many additions this year. Kirk Rogers led the team once again by being one of the finishing medalists in the region. Next year the guys are looking forward to making improvements and are in hopes of going to the state tournament, too!!

Mr. Eddie Trevathan gives the girls a little pep talk before the big match.

Senior Spotlight

Maegan Sullivan has finished out her Senior year and golf career at GHS. In her years playing for Gleason, Maegan placed in both District and Regional Tournaments. In the fall, she plans to attend college and continue her golfing.

With tons of adrenaline rushing through their bodies, the Lady Dawgs stepped out on the hardwood. Not only do they have hopes of beating their opponents, but also of improving their game. As the Lady Dawgs start their warm-ups, you can tell they are determined to play hard and bring home the victory. They are fully committed to getting back to the state tournaments. The girls finished the season 27-5, making it to the substate finals. The trip to the 'Boro would have to wait another year. They will return next year with the same determination to start the new season with a new team and a new gym.

The Dawgs run out of the Dawg house ready for a victory.

Most people would label the boys' basketball team as inexperienced. With only eight players, the boys' varsity overcame more than their fair share of obstacles, including the challenge of rebuilding team effort, recovering from injuries, and focusing on the game. The Dawgs remained determined throughout every challenge they faced. The season was a tough one, but the Dawgs held their heads high. Adam Bennett started as the team's main man followed by the Twin Towers Lucas Carey and Brandon Bailey. Due to Lucas's injury the team made adjustments, that's when Ethan Lowrance stepped in his position. Brian Taylor and Byron Fuqua finished the five as the wing leaders.

Coach Romero, in his second year as head coach, guided the team to 3rd place in the district. The team, led by seniors Ashley, Katie, and Brittney, persevered through the highs and lows throughout the season.

Due to the fact the Lady Dawgs were a young team, each player worked on consistency as well as individual skills. They made improvements through the season and NEVER gave up. Coach Romero has a large percentage of the returning team as upcoming freshmen. The Lady Dawgs will be the team to look for in the future.

It was that time of the year again. Spring was here and with that came America’s favorite past time-baseball. Old gloves, bats, and cleats were dug out of the closet. The players were ready to fine-tune their skills. With the majority of the same players from last year, this team was ready for a competitive season. The Dawgs, along with Coach Bennett, had confidence that with hard work, practice, and dedication, the team would pull off a winning season. Pitcher, senior Shawn Rennison, was ready to lead his team to the district tournament-- with that he did! The Bulldogs finished first in the regular season. When it came down to tournament time, the Dawgs were ready and willing to give it their all. In the end the 2004 team was runner-ups in the District, and finished their season in the first round of the Region.

Governor School for Humanities

A month of my summer was spent studying Shakespeare, deciphering law briefs, and writing continuous essays at the Governor School for the Humanities at UT Martin. I was skeptical of this new situation at first, but at the end I realized it was one of the greatest experiences of my life. I now have a real glimpse of college, and I am prepared--not scared. The responsibilities I have learned by being on my own, the fun I experienced, and the friendships I made will last a lifetime.

Yearbook Staff

Melody Hopper, Maegan Sullivan, Kristie Newsom, Andrew Jackson, Allison Weddington, and Ellen Owen are the six staff members who had previously been on the yearbook staff. Ryne Gearin and Jenny Jones are the two new additions to the yearbook staff.

The year started off with a field trip to Barlett, TN. The staff attended the yearbook seminar to better the upcoming annual. The staff worked hard to "livin' up" this annual and to display the Gleason School's 2004 yearbook with creativity and history.

Gleason School in 1982

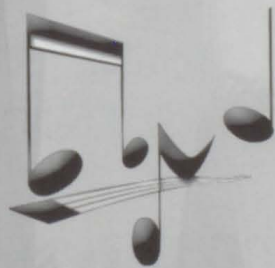

Our school continued its growth through the 70's. Kindergarten classes were started in a portable building in 1974, another was added in 1976. A large two-classroom brick addition was made in 1977. Other improvements were made which included installing an inter-communication system, bricking the 1948 agriculture building, establishing bus service to and from school, and modernizing the agricultural and science departments. In 1980 our enrollment had reached its highest—617. In 1982 under Principal Jerry P. Simmons the "dreams" of a new school became reality. The 1929 building was razed and a new high school was built. The new building included, a new cafeteria that seated 200 students, eight new high school rooms, a new high school science lab, a new home economics department, a new library named in honor of Mr. J. T. Moore, who served as principal at Gleason for 28 years, a new principal's office, lobby, concession stand, and teacher's lounge. Eight new additional elementary classrooms were built in front of the renovated gym. The gym, named the Dudley Sanders Memorial Gymnasium in 1990, was renovated with a seating capacity of 850 and two new ground floor locker rooms. The 1929 cornerstone was saved and placed next to the preserved school bell at the entrance of the new building. In 1989 Gleason School was accredited in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). Growth continued to increase in the 90's and by 1995 enrollment towered to 654. In 1997, under the leadership of Principal Randy Frazier, a new junior high wing was added to the 1982 building. New additions included a guidance office, a vice-principal office, science lab, and eight new classrooms. In 1998 Gleason School reached its peak enrollment of 724. At the turn of the 21st century, Gleason School, re-accredited by SACS, once again continued to meet the needs of the Gleason community. Plans began in 2003 to expand again. The new construction includes, a new gym with a seating capacity of 1640, 4 locker rooms, 2 offices, concession stand, football field house with concession and restroom facilities, an agricultural classroom and shop, a computer lab, seven new classrooms, and the expansion of the cafeteria to seat 230 students. Beginning the 2004 school year, Gleason School once again will occupy a new building.

Trevor,

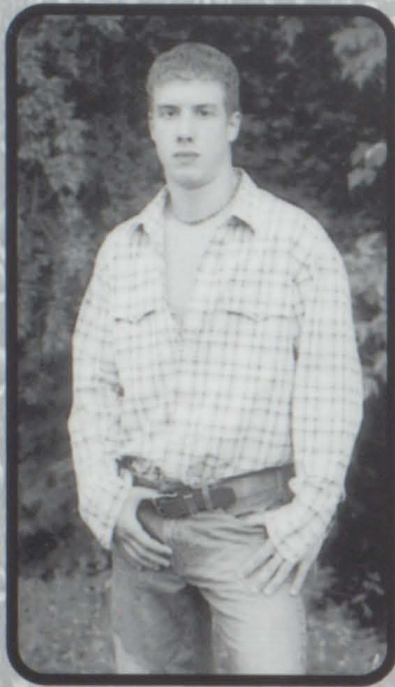

This is a very special time in your life. You are making the transition from a child into manhood. There are many choices you will be called upon to make and we are confident that you have the intelligence and courage to make the right choices.

To borrow the lines of a country song, "A Father's Love Never Ends". "Let me tell you a secret about a father's (and mother's) love, a secret that my daddy said was just between us. Daddies don't just love their children every now and then, it's a love without end."

We love you and only want the very best for you. We know that you can and will succeed in whatever you undertake to do.

Love,

Dad, Mom, Granny, Memaw, and Papaw

Trevor,

Thanks for all the wonderful memories that we have shared. You are and will always be my 'superman'. You have been there in my times of fear, need, and happiness. As you're choosing your future profession I wish you the best of luck.

Love you Trev,
Teala

Jessica,

You've grown from our sweet "baby girl" to a wonderful young woman. We have been so blessed and so proud as we have watched you grow. Always Keep your faith in God. He will never fail you.

All our love forever,
Dad & Mom

Brittney,

We are so very proud of you. From your first day of school until now you have always had a strong determination to succeed. You have grown into such an outstanding young woman with so many beautiful qualities. We admire your diligence, your loyalty, and your faith in God. We respect you for having the courage of Daniel to stand up for what you believe in! We thank God for you everyday and now that you are about to begin a new chapter in your life--we want you to dream what you want to dream; go where you want to go; be what you want to be, because you only have one life and one chance to do all the things you want to do. Follow God's will in every thought and deed--learn from life's lesson. Remember who you are and each chapter will be yours for the writing. You will always have our support in whatever you do.

We love you,
Jamie, Mom, and Leah

Kristie,

At 5 pounds and 13 ounces you entered this world. You have grown from a special little girl into a beautiful and caring young lady. We are proud of your achievements, but we are more proud of the person you are inside. Your outstanding characteristic of being honest in all that you do is one that not many can match. We thank God for blessing us with your love and for all the joy you have given us the past 17 years. We know you will succeed in whatever you strive for. Stand strong in your faith and follow your dreams. Always remember hard work does pay off!

*Love,
Dad, Mom, & Tara*

For the little girl who brought so much light into our lives, the little blonde who flicked her hair out of her eyes and talked so grown up, who learned to climb stairs, ride in the truck and got her finger smashed, loved the zoo trips, swimming in the lake and driving the "Mule", we congratulate you on this just one of many accomplishments. "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in Heaven."

Matthew 5: 16

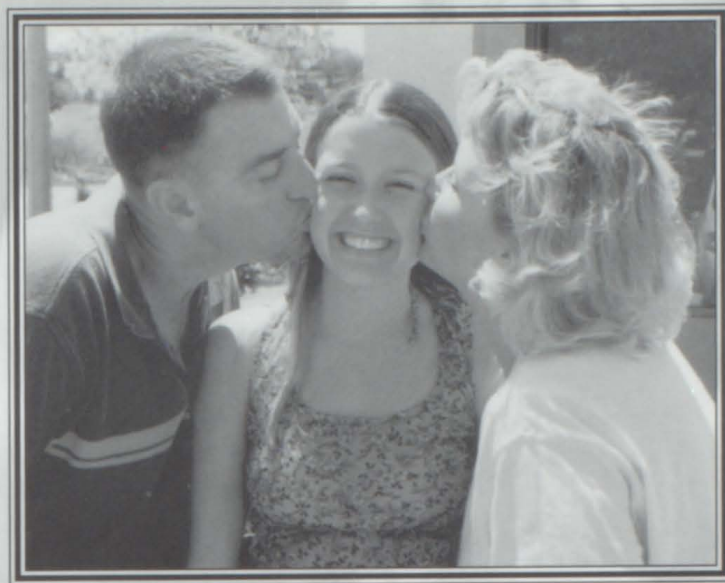

We love you,

Grandpa and Grandma Ale

Nana and Granddaddy were there when you came into this world and knew then that you were special. We have been very proud of you through the years. Now it's graduation time from high school with plans to go to college. We have been there for you then and will continue to be whenever you need us. We love you very, very much.

Jenni,

*We've moved you all over, from Guam to Arkansas, Montana, South Carolina, Hawaii, Colorado, and Tennessee (twice!), 10 schools in 12 years. We are really happy that you were able to graduate from the one you truly loved. The same school where your Nana, your mom, and countless aunts, uncles, and cousins graced the halls. We love you dearly; may God always bless you,
Mom & Dad*

Jennifer we are so very proud of you. You have grown up to be a beautiful sweet young lady. We love you so very much.

Maegan,

From the moment you were born all red and wrinkled, to your first day of kindergarten, to your first day of your Senior year- We have been so PROUD of you! You will always be Mom and Dad's baby girl and Austin's "sister". We know without a shadow of doubt that you will definitely be a "somebody" someday- cause God never makes a "nobody". Good Luck! We love you!

Dear Jenny,

When you were 17 "hours" old, you had your first temper fit. While on your stomach, you stiffened your arms and rolled over to your back. At 22 hours, you repeated the process. We knew that first day that we had been blessed with a very determined child. The temper soon subsided but the determination has grown every day and most importantly, been used in a positive way. Your determination inspired a work ethic that will enable you to blaze your own trails. You have never, and will never, have to depend on the gifts of others for your success. You have intelligence along with common sense. You treat others with respect and kindness, whether deserved or not. You know the difference in right and wrong and strive to do what is right. You have a strong desire to win, but had rather lose than have an unearned victory. These traits, along with your strong faith in God, will afford you the very best that life has to offer. Congratulations on all of your accomplishments. Please know that we have enormous respect for you. Thank you so much for the person that you are.

With our deepest love,

Dad, Mom, Casey, Chad, & Tammy

Katie Frances,

The best things in life are often the things we least expect. If people had told me ten years ago my best friend would be my sister, I would have said they were crazy. You were just an annoying little kid back then and I was probably pretty annoying myself.

But, of course, things changed. We both grew up and grew closer together. Now, I cannot imagine my life without you. There is no one I would rather spend time with, no one I love more.

God has blessed you in so many ways, and you have responded by being a faithful servant of Christ. I am so proud of you for so many things. But, most of all, I am proud of you because you love God and you live your life accordingly.

Circumstances have taken me far away from you, but you are always with me. I think about you all the time and find the greatest happiness in your successes, not my own.

You are far too good for this world. You are my "Catcher in the Rye," keeping me idealistic and happy, always making me forget how unfair the real world can be because you are so full of goodness. Everyone you meet is a better person because they know you. I know I am. I love you so much and I'm so proud of you!

Adrienne
