Girls' Basketball

Over 19 years ago, a young coach stepped into the Dudley Sanders Gymnasium. Today he has earned the title of being one of the best high school basketball coaches in the state of Tennessee. He has taught many ball players what it takes to be a champion. His discipline, dedication, and hard work have paid off in a winning girls' basketball program year after year. On February 7th of 2005, Coach Randy Frazier reached a milestone. He recorded his 500th win as the coach of the Gleason Lady Bulldogs in a game against Bradford.

Little sis,

When I was two years old God blessed me with the best dress-up doll in the world, you! Though it was in your best interest to stop doing everything that I told you to do, we have, however, had some wild, crazy, and outrageous times! But in all seriousness I am extremely proud of what you have become and all of your many accomplishments. You have developed into a bright and beautiful young lady, and I really will miss you when you go off to college. After all I will no longer get the opportunity to wash your laundry, clean your room, or be puzzled with the daily mystery of "Where have all my clothes gone?" Thank you for being my sister, twin, partner in crime, shopping companion, fashion consultant, best friend, and maid of honor. Keep doing what you're doing and I know you'll always find success in your life! I am so very proud of you, don't ever change!

With love always,
Erica

Congratulations Lucas!

We are proud of you and thankful for the blessing you are in our family.

Continue to dream and reach for the stars, don't ever settle for less than you can be.

We Love You,
Mom, Dad, Josh and
Grandpa

Sheena,

My precious gift from God, kissed by the angels and placed in my care. For what reason would God trust me with such a wonderful gift? I didn't know he had given me my own guardian angel. Someone to touch my heart and soul. Little did I know how much you had to teach me. I taught you small things; like how to eat your dinner without getting it on your clothes. You taught me clothes didn't matter. "Love is what matters most." I taught you to take a nap during the day, with that nap you taught me to keep my dreams alive.

I taught you that you must work to have things in life. You taught me to work hard to change tomorrow. I taught you there is no guarantee of tomorrow; you taught me to enjoy it! So together we have seized the moment when we could. It has been the best days I could ever hope for. You have become my best friend I will be lost when you are gone. But I know it is time for you to answer your call. So go, don't be afraid to face the world against all odds, and keep something inside you to inspire you to always try. Don't let anyone tell you that you can't fly!!
Thanks for sharing your life and love with me.

*Love,
Mom*

Sheena,
You came to my life for a reason, a season, a lifetime
A reason to bring me happiness
A season to make me laugh
A lifetime to show me the value of life
Thank you for being part of my life

As your Dad I came to your life for a reason, a season, a lifetime
A reason to assist you in a difficult time to provide you with guidance and support through your life.

A season to teach you something you have never done. A season to make you laugh and to make you happy throughout your life.

A lifetime to show you the difference between right and wrong, to teach life experience from my own so you don't make the mistakes I made.

Thank you for letting me be a part of your life.

I love you
Your Dad

Our Graduate

Corey, it was just yesterday, you were a little boy,
 Going to Gingerbread Junction— where you took your favorite toy.
 Chris, your brother, helped you as you started off to big school.
 It was sort of hard at first for you to learn that you couldn't break the rules!
 Thru kindergarten and elementary— you made lots of friends.
 To baseball games, swimming pools and parties, there was no end.
 In Jr. High there was football and you could really punt.
 You were known by some as the "Leg of the South" but you never liked to hunt.
 High school brought you ups and downs but you hung on with pride.
 You've made it through, worked real hard, and don't you feel good inside!
 As you crossed the stage in your cap and gown, your family watched with love,
 We thank you Corey for making us proud and for you we thank God above.

Congratulations!

You've Made it !!!!

We love you,
 Mom and Dad

Congratulations

Ellen !!!

Life is full of happiness, disappointments, love, and faithfulness. No matter what life sends in your journey of life God will help you overcome and handle all life's obstacles. You are the middle child. You are not the shy and quiet child. You have developed into a beautiful, strong, and caring young woman. You have set strong Christian morals for other students to follow. You have met all your high school goals. Now life has taken you to the farther set corner of Tennessee., but we knew that with four children. We are proud of our number two child, Ellen Ruth Owen. We know you have a strong Christian faith that will help you throughout life.

Love Always, Dad and Mom

Life is like a game of Rook. It is not the cards life has dealt you that is important, but how you play them is what makes the difference. You have played your cards of life with high morals and common sense. Continue to use your head and play the cards throughout life as you have for 18 years.

And when you get famous REMEMBER your poor old granddaddy. You have always been special in my eyes.

Love Always, Granddaddy

We are proud of you, not only for your school accomplishments but for who you have become. Remember this from 2 Corinthians 5:7. "We walk by faith, not by sight", continue your walk thru life by faith.

Josh,

I'm so proud of you for always being yourself and standing strong in your faith and high standards. Never forget who you are and whose you are!

Love ya a lot,

Mom

Jessica,
You made it!

I'm proud of the way you did it- Prayer, Determination, and a Stubborn will. God blessed our family with a miracle baby and through all the laughter, tears, sickness and joy, you've grown into a beautiful person. God also blessed you with a forgiving heart, a beautiful mind and a stubborn streak that has carried you through it all, and will carry you to the end. You've learned more than you could ever get from a book. The meaning of friendship, the cruelty of gossip and the power of prayer. You've learned to do what you know is right and let God handle the rest.

When you've had to take a step back you've taken 2 forward. There's no doubt you will go far.

I will always be there for you- 110%.
Never let anyone tell you, you can't,
because you CAN!

I love you,
Mom

Congratulations Jessica,
 God sent to us a special gift,
 a granddaughter we call Jessica.
 Always be true to yourself and trust in God.
 Poppy would be so very proud of his Wormie,
 and so am I.
 Remember I'll always be here for you.
 Much happiness in all you do in life.

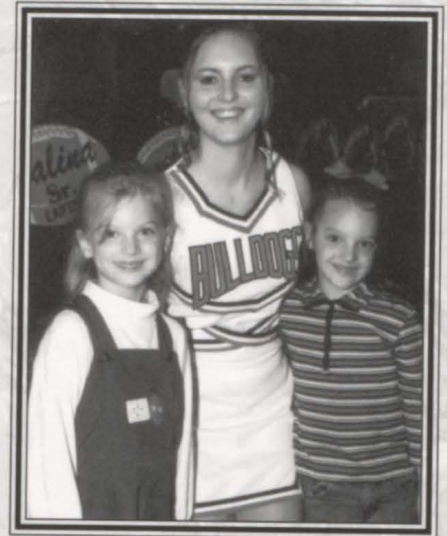

Love you, Nanny

Congratulations Jessica!

Best of luck to you
 and your future.
 We love you!

Rachel & Rebecca

Jessica,

I love you sis, even though you dressed me as a girl when I was little! I guess I've paid you back all the times I've been mean to you.
 Good Luck and I'll miss you.

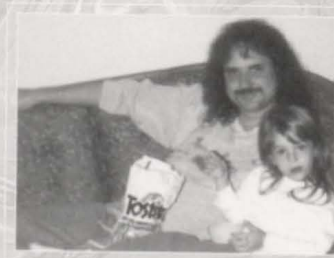

Love,
 Little Brother Michael

Jessica,

God made me the luckiest man in the world when he blessed me with you for a daughter. I am so proud of you and all that you have accomplished.
 You have become a beautiful young woman but always remember in my eyes you are daddy's little girl. Always keep your faith in God and you will go far in life. May God bless you and always be with you in all that you do.

I love you,
 Daddy

I can't believe you are graduating. I can remember when you were in the 5th grade and were trying out for cheerleading for the first time. Where has the time gone? We have made the transition from sisters to friends. You will never know how much I have loved our shopping trips, late night talks, and even our fights. You will always be my little sister.

I love you so very much.

Good Luck!

Jen
