Summer

... long days ... late nights ... cheer camps ... church trips ... cookouts ... sleepovers ... two-a-days ... basketball practice ... vacation ... work ... mowing yards ... babysitting ... yearbook workshop ... FFA leadership ... sleeping late ... swimming often ...

As the lazy days of summer wind down, the CROZY days of school start up. Pre-K and Kindergarten students walk in the front doors ready for the start of a great adventure. In just nine short months, 49 seniors will walk out those same doors ready to begin an even bigger adventure. Come with us as we begin our walk through the 2011-2012 school year by enjoying those last few days of summer.

It helps to bridge the gap between summer and fall, it gives everybody something to do on Friday nights, it unites the student body in a common purpose, and it provides an opportunity to display school pride. At left, students show their support for the football team at the first pep rally.

Mrs. Kristie and Mrs. Jackson

Within the walls of Gleason School worked one of the greatest science teachers ...

Mrs. Betty Jackson.

Students will remember all the hands-on activities like jeopardy, making ice cream, fudge, and cricket cookies. They will remember making pizzas and cakes to model a cell, making DNA strands with beads and wire, or preserving their own DNA in vials. Then there was Mole Day, the Mock Mystery, watching movies like Jurassic Park, Gattaca, and Finding Nemo, dissecting worms, sharks, and pigs. They will have fond memories of the science club trips to the zoo, the space center, the wildlife habitat, and Reelfoot Lake. Many will remember the local science fairs and some the International Science Fairs. They will remember Mrs. J.'s stash of treats and the expression on her face when they did something great or when they did something not so great.

For those of us who worked alongside of her, we will miss her laughter, her energy, her blunt honesty, and her brilliant mind. We witnessed her big heart as she tutored struggling students and quietly slipped them a few dollars when they were in need.

The legendary science teacher in the blue lab coat pushed her students to excel beyond anything that they expected of themselves both in the classroom and in life. She took her job seriously and made certain that her students were prepared to continue their education. The number of students whose lives have been changed for the positive by Mrs. Jackson is simply too numerous to count. Her passing was too soon, too sudden. We will always remember our dear Mrs. J.

-Ms. Gearin

Mrs. Gail Muzzall shared with us the song she sang in memory of Mrs. Kristie Arnold.

"I bet the trumpets played, and the angels sang every sweet refrain of Amazing Grace; the heavens' hand opened up the gate, and the children danced when they saw your face. As happy as they were to see you coming, I was just as sad to have to watch you go. Oh, but knowing what I know about Heaven. Believing that you're all the way home. Knowing that you're somewhere better is all I need to let you go."

"Knowing What I Know About Heaven"

When we think of Mrs. Kristie, we all have different memories, but all of us remember her willingness to help. The greatest memory would probably be her willingness to just say yes. She always said yes to the opportunity to help another person in need, whether it was a family member, student, ball player, or fellow worker. The answer was simply, "Yes, what can I do to help?" With this remarkable ability of helping came the way she went about it with a great big smile and laughter that filled the room. Whether it was dressing crazy for a school activity or camping out on the roof to shoot you with water when you came in or taking a group to roll your yard, she did it all with energy and love for the people around her. We will all miss her in different ways, but we all should try to fill our lives with the same positive attitude she demonstrated while she was here.

This year has been filled with many memories I'll never forget. I'm so glad I got to help showcase all the fun Gleason School has had this past year. A lot of hard work has been illustrated throughout this year's annual.
 -Senior, Lindsey Langley

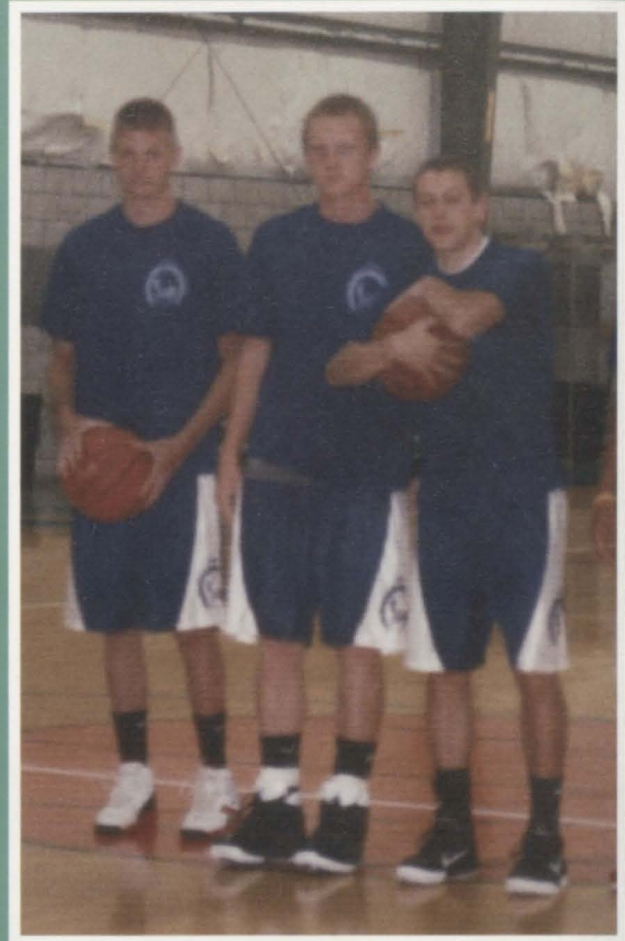

I enjoyed capturing the good, fun times the Bulldogs had. I'm glad that I had the opportunity to capture the happy and crazy times. I am thankful for the opportunity to learn something new. My years at Gleason School were exciting and full of learning how to make important decisions in life.
 -Senior, Joanna Neill

Emily Bell, Carson Stafford, and Ethan Terrell have fun in the ocean during free time while at Laguna Beach Christian retreat with Tumbling Creek Baptist Church.

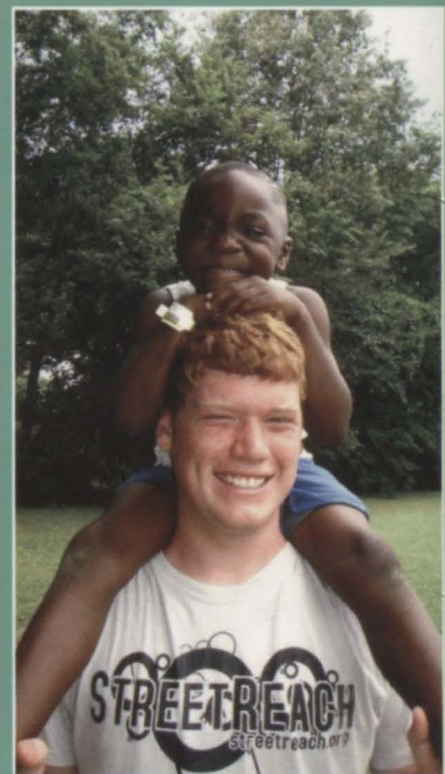

Austin Perry plays on a Tennessee traveling team that places sixth in a nation-wide tournament.

Matthew McAlister, David Spellings, and Gabe Lowrance represent Gleason School at Tennessee Boys State.

Cole Verdell spends his summer working at Street Reach, an inner city ministry in Memphis. He says it is a life-changing experience and he is glad that God calls him to serve in areas like this. He knows that through these opportunities, he makes friendships that will last a lifetime.

The high school football team spends time at Liberty Retreat working on team-building activities. They are also treated to a meal provided by the retreat.

The incoming freshmen celebrate the last few days of summer at the home of Mrs. Kay Hudson. Mrs. Kay provides this annual opportunity for outgoing 8th graders as a way for them to make memories as a class.

Sami Verdell and Whitney Reed represent Gleason School at Volunteer Girls State.

Let's Make History Boys!!!

This 2011 football season has been outstanding for our bulldogs. The team paved the way to the first home playoff victory in the history of Gleason School. Braden Stafford, Sam Cosby, Corey Wilson, Gabe Lawrence, Jon Riley, Conner Verdell, Cole Verdell, and Dusty McClure left their mark as being the most successful 4-year lettermen in Gleason history with two playoff victories under their belt. As freshmen, they experienced a win versus district rival and #1 seed TCA. As seniors they redeemed themselves with a victory at home versus South Fulton. Congratulations to the Bulldog team and to the seniors for a great career.

This year's beta club was filled with fun and unique personalities that reflect the diversity of interests found in our student body. Last year, our focus was not on community service projects such as the mulching of the school, trash pickup, and library reading partners. During this school year, our focus was on participating in the academic competitions at the Tennessee State Beta Convention. Fifteen Beta members attended convention this year at the Opryland Hotel. The following participated in competitions:

English: Leslie Todd

Social Studies: Bee Martin

Math: Dylan Hughey

Spelling: Braden Stafford

Science: Kin Le

Spanish: David Spellings

Creative Writing: Jon Riley

Pencil Drawing: Hannah Kemp

Our desire is for academic standards and integrity to continue to grow, as well as, for our positive presence in the community to reflect the ideals of Beta Club.

Reading Partners Program

Older and younger students are paired together, and then, together, choose books to read. The younger students learn from the older students, who serve as role models.

Library Winners

Each year, junior high students participate in a skill-related competition during their weekly library classes. In teams, these students work together all year long as they learn library and reading skills. This year, the winning teams were treated to a fabulous trip out to eat at the Hitching Post.

Bethel Basketball Boys

Players from the Bethel Men's Basketball team volunteer to read to several elementary library classes, much to the children's delight

Star Winners

Students in each elementary class work as a team to earn a "star" for outstanding behavior during library class every week. The class earning the most "stars" at the end of the year receives a CHAMPION trophy. In addition, each student in the winning classroom is awarded an individual "HIGH 5 HANDS UP" trophy. The winning class, with 16 stars, was Mrs Tara Hughes's 1st grade class

"I SPY" ... good readers

Accelerated Reader

Each year, the Gleason School Library sponsors a school-wide Accelerated Reader (A.R.) Competition to nurture and encourage the love of reading in students. Participation is optional. After reading books, students take a computer-generated comprehension test on each book to earn A.R. points. Trophies are awarded to the top two point-earners in each elementary classroom. Additional awards of trophies and cash are given for the overall winners in both A.R. points and A.R. average in elementary, junior high, and high school. School-wide winners are rewarded as well.

Chandler,

It is hard to believe that my little girl is all grown up and graduating high school. It seems like only a few years have passed since I was carrying you around in my arms, tucking you into your bed, and reading you bedtime stories. I am very proud of the young lady that my little girl has grown up to be. I hope all of your dreams come true one day.

I love you,
Dad

Chandler,

You are a smart and beautiful woman. As another part of your life begins, use the knowledge, determination, and the confidence that I know you have to make decisions to fulfill your dreams. Set your standards high and trust in yourself. Thank you for sharing special moments with us the last year and a half.

Congrats and love you

Matthew,

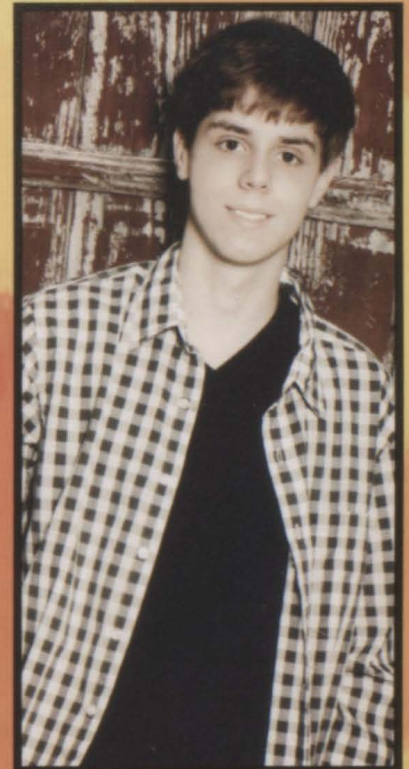

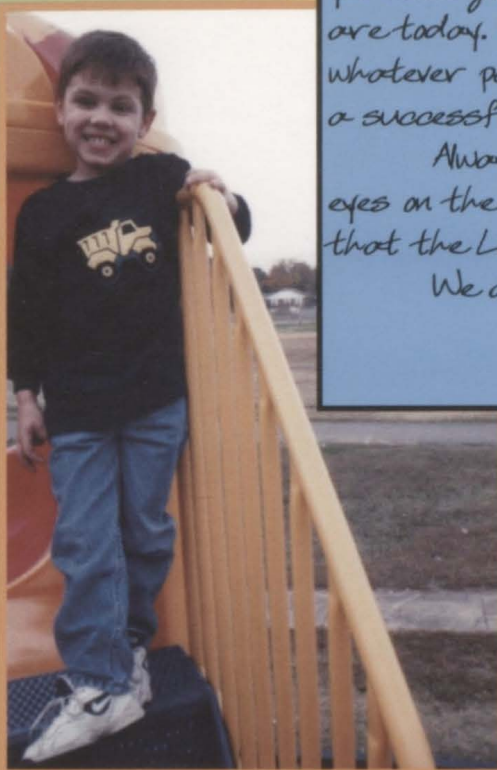

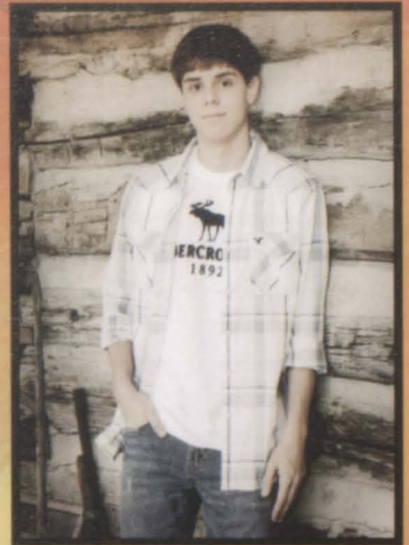

Words could never describe what a blessing you have been to me and dad. You have filled our lives with so much love and laughter and brought joy to all those around you.

We have watched in admiration as you have grown into the young man you are today. We have no worries that whatever path you choose in life, it will be a successful one.

Always remember to keep your eyes on the straight and narrow path that the Lord has set before you.

We are very proud of you, Matt.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Matt,

I'll never be able to explain our relationship. We're not the "I love you" type, but somehow you've never failed to show me you love me. We've always been super-close, but it seems like the past four years with you, have been the closest. I am really going to miss you taking me to school every morning and taking me home. We've had some long talks about life, choices and electronics. You have taught me many things that mom and dad couldn't. I really appreciate you, Matt. You do so much for your family that we've failed to thank you for.

You're such a smart kid, and I have no doubt that you're going to be successful all throughout life. I know you'll make the right decision no matter what choices you have. You've always been my role model, and I look up to you.

Even though I probably don't tell you enough, I love you and believe in you. I know you won't disappoint me, or anyone else, Bubba.

We all have faith in you. Never change.

Love, Jojo

David,

We love you so much!
You bring joy, laughter, and beautiful music to our lives. Remember always II Chronicles 16:9 "The Lord . . . will show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him."

Love,

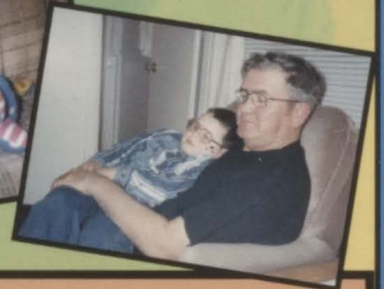

Mom, Dad, Tom, and Jamie

Dusty,

We love you,
Mom, Richard, Cory,

Ashton,

Conner & Cole,
 As we met, fell in love and chose a life together
 we always dreamed of children and family!
 The day came for the most amazing announcement:
 "There are two of them!"
 "seriously?! Are you SURE?!"
 And lots of laughter ensued.

That night everyone around had to hear the news
 And see the little picture of proof:
 "we're going to have twins!"

Dad's statement to this day remains true:
 "Now that we know there are two,
 one just isn't enough!"

Most certainly and without a doubt,
 more things we've done wrong than right!
 Anger, frustrations, irritations and stress,
 All came into our home more than we wished!

But we remember lots of laughter, lots of dreams,
 lots of playing, cooking, singing!
 Legos and blocks, books and bikes!
 Baseball, football, a try at soccer and Karate!
 When it's all mixed up in the pot,
 To us this is what it looks like: pure bliss!

All the freckles, skinned knees,
 New skills learned, new places explored,
 All work together to paint
 The tapestry of you!
 We're enchanted, as always,
 And can hardly wait,
 To watch it continue to unfold...

To watch you continue to grow
 (as our prayer has been)
 As "men of integrity and character".

Mom & Dad

Dear Conner & Cole,
 I hope that you have a good time
 at college and come home often so we can hang out. Thank you for being great role models for me to look up to! I hope to be the perfect mixture of both of you one day.
 Addison

Conner and Cole,
 congratulations on your graduation and all your accomplishments we are so proud of you! I am sure you will be a great success in the future if you will continue to seek God's direction for your life. We love you both very much!
